The Comptroller replied that reluctions meant the employees should se paid just what they were worth

Comptroller Prendergast told the Committee that if some of the heads of departments were under his furisdiction they would not be getting $7,500 a year. These officials, appointees of the Mayor, cannot be reduced without an amendment to the Charter. Alderman Henry H. Cur-ran asked Mr. Prendergast if he would reduce the salaries of any of the $7,500 department heads now. "I don't care to answer that, because I prefer not to enter a specu-lative field," replied the Comptroller "But you know my position."

They have a story, of course. Here it is:

It is interesting to note that the idea of the Hilds Cowhan Kiddes was devised by a character of the Hilds of the Hilds who is only ten years old, but full or ariginality, and she invented them to amuse herself, as she had no childish companions, and would play school, go shopping, drill, and have all sorts of 'make believe' games with these little playmates for hours together."
